The United States Bowling Congress Hall of Fame will welcome at least four new members when the 2023 class is inducted April 26th during the USBC Convention in Las Vegas.

The USBC Hall of Fame Committee recently elected Mike Rose Jr. of Orlando, Florida (Formally Rochester USBC), in the Outstanding USBC Performance category.

Rose earned induction in his first year on the ballot on the strength of four Eagles won at the USBC Open Championships.

The NYS USBC Annual Meeting will be held at Turning Stone Resort and Casino on Saturday, June 3, 2023 with the Hall of Fame ceremony that evening.

If anyone would like to reserve a room at the NYS USBC rate of $189.00, for either Friday or Saturday evening, please contact NYS USBC President, Roger Buckman, ASAP!

Update from the Pathways Committee

Thank you to everyone that supported the NFL FundCrazr raffle that concluded with end of the NFL regular season schedule.

This activity raised over $2500 that will go towards our charities and youth scholarships.

Winners from each week can be found at fundcrazr.com and entering your discount code found on the front of your ticket.

Payouts from this raffle will come directly from FundCrazr!

Our next big fundraiser is the tickets we sell that use the NYS Evening Daily number. This year we are selling tickets for June and July for $10 each with 61 possible chances to win. Tickets will be available at our tournaments, through the NYS Board Members, and the NYS Youth Committee.

Update from the Tournament Committee

Tournament registration is open for all our upcoming tournaments. Entry blanks can be found online at bowlNy.com and should be available at your local bowling centers.

DID YOU KNOW.... this year you are able to register online through the same portal that Nationals uses. Online registration can be found on the homepage of the New York State USBC, and is available for the Masters, Women's Championship, Open Championship, and Queens.

Easily register online and pay for your entry fees with a credit/debit card.
